Dear Sir/Madam,

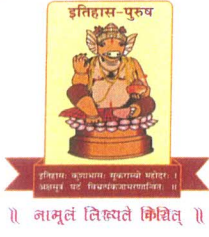

Re: Proposal for Donation to the One day National Seminar on occasion of PunyashlokAhilyabai Holkar JayantiTri-Centenary Year scheduled on 29.03.2025

On the occasion of the 300th-birth anniversary of PunyashlokAhilyabai Holkar, the Department of History, L. J. N. J. Women's College, Vile Parle (East), Mumbai - 57, in collaboration with the Department of History, S. N. D. T. Women's University, Mumbai, the Department of Archaeology, University of Mumbai, and the BharatiyaltihhasSankalan Samiti, Konkan Province, is organizing a one-day national seminar on the topic: "Contribution of PunyashlokAhilyabai Holkar to History and Indian Culture"

Concept of the Seminar:

PunyashlokAhilyabai Holkar was a visionary 18th-century ruler known for her just governance, economic prosperity, and social harmony. Amid political turmoil, she ensured stability through efficient administration, diplomacy, and inclusive policies. Beyond governance, she revived sacred sites, including the Kashi Vishwanath Temple, and promoted literature, arts, and education. Her economic policies strengthened trade and uplifted communities, leaving a lasting legacy in India's cultural and spiritual heritage.

On her Tri-Shatabdi Jayanti Varsh, this seminar aims to bring together scholars, researchers and subject experts to discuss her exceptional leadership, governance model, economic and diplomatic strategies and contribution to heritage conservation. Through discussions and research presentations, the seminar will provide deeper insights into her lasting legacy. The research papers and key seminar findings will be compiled and published, making her life and contributions accessible for further academic study and public understanding. This seminar also seeks to inspire present and future generations by reflecting on her values of justice, empowerment and progressive governance.
